

DIGGING IN

Staff Photo/Lohr McKinstry

Ticonderoga Town Historian William Dolback (center) watches as a crew from Landmark Archaeology of Altamont examines the plot selected for construction of a replica French sawmill on the LaChute River. The town owns the property, which was given to the community by American Graphite. The tourism-enhancing sawmill project is seeking full funding.